

Historic Deerfield

Autumn 2018 · Volume 17 · ISSN 1535-2447

2 New England and the World · Caroline Frank, Dept. of American Studies, Brown University

9 Everyday Exotic: Indian-Decorated Cottons in 17th- and 18th-Century New England
David E. Lazaro, Curator of Textiles

16 The Spanish Silver Dollar: The World's First Universal Currency
Amanda Lange, Curatorial Department Director and Curator of Historic Interiors

20 Avenue of Commerce: Trade in the Connecticut River Valley of Massachusetts
David Bosse, Librarian & Curator of Maps

27 A Parlor Tour of the Pacific: How Dufour's Captain Cook Wallpaper
Came to New England · Robert M. Kelly, Independent Scholar

32 Exotic Woods in Connecticut River Valley Furniture · Christine Ritok, Associate Curator

36 History in Stoneware: Depictions of the British Slave Trade on an 18th-Century English
Punch Bowl · Daniel S. Sousa, Decorative Arts Trust Curatorial Intern

41 The World Encompassed: Deerfield Academy's Cabinet of Curiosities
Suzanne L. Flynt, Independent Researcher

47 Threads of the East: Drawloom-Woven English and European Dress Silks at Historic Deerfield · David E. Lazaro, Curator of Textiles

51 Rise of the Picturesque: Cottage Architecture Reaches Deerfield
Eric Gradoia, Director of Historic Preservation

56 A Cup of Chocolate in 1771 · Claire C. Carlson, Education Program Coordinator

