

Historic Deerfield

Autumn 2020 · Volume 18 · ISSN 1535-2447

CONTENTS

- 2 Pocumtuck People and History · Margaret M. Bruchac
- 8 Speaking of Indians: Indigenous Identities in Colonial Histories · Margaret M. Bruchac
- 10 Deerfield's Place in Native America · Evan Haefeli
- 14 Native Trails, Early Roads, and Changing Landscapes in Deerfield · Peter A. Thomas
- 24 "The Indians were at Deerfield": Mary Rowlandson in the Pocumtuck Homeland · Lisa Brooks
- 28 Awikhighanak in the Great Beaver's Bowl: Pinewans's Network of Relations (Kwinitewk, 1747) · Lisa Brooks
- 34 In Search of the Pocumtuck "Fort"—An Artifact of Colonial History · Elizabeth S. Chilton and Siobhan M. Hart
- 40 Visions of War: A 17th-Century War Club Embedded with Wampum · Margaret M. Bruchac
- 46 Battlefield Archaeology of King Philip's War · Kevin McBride
- 52 Population Decline in the Pocumtuck Homelands: A Reconsideration of the Role of Disease · Alan Swedlund
- 57 A Road Not Taken: The Deerfield Conference of 1735 · Colin G. Calloway
- 66 Arosen's Gifts · Suzanne L. Flynt
- 68 William Apess, Colrain's Forgotten Native Son · Drew Lopezina
- 73 Cross-Cultural Collecting in Deerfield · Ray Radigan
- 75 (Re) making History: Memory, Commemoration, and the Bloody Brook Monuments · Barbara Mathews and Peter A. Thomas

Below: Early 20th-century photograph of Native planting mounds in Northampton, MA, from the H.H. Wilder Papers. Courtesy of Smith College Special Collections. Cover: View south from Deerfield's North Meadows of the Deerfield River and Pocumtuck Range. Back cover: View north of the Deerfield River and South Meadows in Deerfield.

