

Historic Deerfield

Autumn 2021 · Volume 19 · ISSN 1535-2447

CONTENTS

- 2 Just What the Doctor Ordered:
Medical Material Culture at Historic Deerfield · Amanda E. Lange
- 9 Choosing and [Not?] Using Artificial Limbs in 19th-Century America · Nicole Belolan
- 14 Stephen West Williams and Medical Botany in the Connecticut River Valley · Jeanne Solensky
- 20 "Come Wash and Be Healed": David Ruggles and the Northampton Water Cure ·
Tom Goldscheider
- 26 A Doctor in Homespun: The Arts & Crafts Life of Mary Phylinda Dole · James Golden
- 31 Hartford's Asylum for the Deaf · Daniel Sousa
- 36 The 1918-19 Influenza Pandemic in Franklin County, Massachusetts ·
Alan C. Swedlund
- 41 When She Spoke: Susie Yellowtail Gave Voice to Those Who Were Silenced ·
Ray Radigan
- 44 "A wonderful broom maker": Calvin Salisbury of Deerfield ·
Barbara Mathews
- 46 Ephras Hoyt's Recollections of Diet in Early Deerfield ·
Claire Carlson
- 47 The Country Doctor: Medical Education in Early New England ·
David Bosse
- 51 Colton's Cure

On the cover: Bottles for patent medicines and other medicinal treatments, late 19th and early 20th centuries.

Back cover: Apothecary preparing drugs from The Book of English Trades (London, 1823). Oxford Science Archive/Heritage Images.